“Talking about my generation”

If you remember ‘my generation’ as a song lyric you were probably a teenager in the 1960s or possibly a dedicated follower of fashion in popular music. If you are a reader of the Bible you may have recognised the Old Testament interest in ancestry and in the idea that we exist in our own time. It was said of King David that he ‘had served God’s purpose in his own generation’ (Acts 13; 36). One of our responsibilities; the responsibility of every generation, is to pass on our hopes, our wisdom and our experience to our children and our children’s children. If you are a grandparent, or even a great grandparent, this may come easily to you. You will have learnt to answer the question, ‘what was it like in the old days?’

In each generation God looks for those who will faithfully represent His message of hope and the joy that comes to those who come close to God. Most of us are from humble origins while a few Christians were literally born to great privilege. Whatever your origins you have a responsibility to share what you believe with others.

Like many in my 60s generation I have taken little interest in royalty but last December, after lunch on Christmas day, I was impressed by the Queen’s Christmas message. I know the Queen is the supreme governor of the Church of England but she also talks with personal experience and hope. The clarity of her faith is a strong message to following generations. The Queen cannot have always enjoyed the speculation and public interest a gossip hungry media subjects her to but she has always responded to individuals with personal interest and grace. This month on April 21st the Queen is 90 years old. No we have not missed the celebrations. You have time to bake your cakes and plan the street party as the Queen and Prince Phillip officially celebrate the occasion on the weekend of 10th -12th June.

At her coronation the Queen told my parents and their generation that, ‘I have been and remain – very grateful to you for your prayers and to God for His steadfast love. I have indeed seen His faithfulness.’

In a Christmas broadcast fifty years later Queen Elizabeth told a new generation, ‘I know just how much I rely on my faith to guide me through the good times and the bad ... I draw strength from the message of hope in the Christian gospel.’

Happy Birthday to Her Majesty and thank you for serving God’s purpose in our generation.

LETTER FROM THE RECTOR.....

Last year we experimented in several of our churches at incorporating our APCM- into the body of our worship as part of a service. It seems right to give thanks to God as part of our worship, for all that has happened and for all who served the church and community in 2015 and to seek God's blessing on all that lies ahead; to pray for those to be elected to office and to reaffirm our commitment as the people of God to be his ministers-witnessing to the love of God through all that we do as individuals and as the Body of Christ.

The APCM also gives the opportunity for each of us to ask ourselves, what is God calling me to do within the life of the Church - it may be to serve as a Churchwarden or member of the PCC; to deliver magazines; to host one of our regular coffee mornings; to join one of our house groups; to help with church cleaning or perhaps to think about training as an Elder. There are so many opportunities, please think about what you could offer? The details of each of this year's APCMs are listed under What's On-please come and join in our services of thanksgiving to God for all that he gives us and for all we are able to offer back to him.

Rev'd Clare Sanders

FAIRTRADE FORTNIGHT 2016

The Fair Trade coffee morning at the Parish Room in Grundisburgh on March 5th raised £100 for the church and £41.87 for Traidcraft. At the Big brew on March 6th donations were £71.69. And so from the generosity of those who came a donation of £113.56 has been sent to the Traidcraft Let it Grow Campaign. Thank you.

The 'Let It Grow' campaign is all about providing farmers and artisans with everything they need to escape from poverty and cultivate a better future. Without the right conditions, nothing grows. It's true for plants, but it's also true for people – they need opportunities, they need training, and they need to be treated fairly.

MEN'S GROUP

The next meeting is on Monday 25th April 2016 at the Moon and Mushroom, Swilland starting at 6.30pm. Please email or telephone Brian Williams for numbers wanting Supper. Tel 01473 785726 or bfwdent@btinternet.com

Any male member of the locality who reads this is welcome to come along and join us.

The speaker for this Men's Group meeting is none other than our founder chairman David Papworth.

The title of his talk is "Pig Tales!"

David has passed an epoch professionally promulgating pig purchase, pig procreation, pig provision, pig preening, pig prudence, and pig put down.

Passing the apex of his profession, he poses, poised to possibly placidly, probably patiently and perhaps passionately, proclaim populous porky pies in the promise of a post-performance, pulled pork picnic or optional picked preference

From the Editor The cut off date for material to be included is the 8th of the month and material should be sent to Clare at revclaresanders@tiscali.co.uk & Amy at bakergirl174@gmail.com please.
