“Wishing you a Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year”

The Power of the Christmas Story.....

Why do so many people go to crib services and Christmas day services when they don't go to church much during the year? Does that matter? Some clergy would say YES! But I am not so sure. Do you remember the film Avatar, where the inhabitants of the island plug their hair into the fronds of the tree to worship and to be reconnected to the goodness of the tree. For me, God is the creator and fount of goodness and we need to be plugged into that goodness –often if possible, but at least once a year at the time when we remember God's coming to earth as a baby.

There is so much goodness around at Christmas: a time of remembering old friends through the sending of cards, the generosity of giving, the joy of feasting, the mystery of worship, the familiarity of the nativity (' the greatest story ever told'), the pleasure of families reuniting (can be a mixed blessing!) And we need to go to the heart of it: the generosity of God in sending his son to be among us, the creating of the family of Joseph, Mary and Jesus, the mystery of the wise men coming to worship... in order to fully appreciate what Christmas is about.

I was very moved by having a real new born baby being Jesus, two years in a row from the Clow family, at the crib service for Otley. As the babies were so newly born we asked Carly, their mother to be Mary and she kindly agreed. She was overwhelmed by the experience and began asking questions about the Christian faith. In July this year, she and all her three children were baptised in a family service at Otley church. That is the power of the Christmas story.

The Christmas story also unites us as a society when we are fractured and divided, it was part of our narrative when we were growing up and something we want to share with our children. The other faiths who are part of this country also largely respect the importance of Christmas and many celebrate it in their own way.

So do come to refresh yourselves with the remarkable goodness and generosity of God: at our carol services, crib services and communion services. You will be welcomed with open arms and maybe some mince pies and mulled wine... Please see the list of services set out in Grapevine or the Church Times.

May God bless your Christmas this year and may you feel the power of the Christmas story.
